

WICKED
online at LOCAL Watertown.com

TAB

WATERTOWN

& PRESS

INCORPORATING THE WATERTOWN SUN & WATERTOWN PRESS

Community Newspaper Company

MAY 21 - 27, 2010

Vol. 55, No. 16 ■ 68 Pages ■ 3 Sections $1

NEW CABLE SHOW

'Charlie's Organizers' debuts

By Jen Thomas
STAFF WRITER

They may not have feathered hair and hot pants, but Watertown's own trio of butt-kicking beauties has something the original Charlie's Angels could only dream of.

An organized closet.

Featuring three local entrepreneurs, "Charlie's Organizers" is a tongue-in-cheek makeover TV show that debuted on the Watertown Cable Access Channel on Monday. The program, which is loosely based on "Charlie's Angels," is a fun and funny take on organizing and decluttering. It includes tips and how-tos.

"The point of the show is to really help educate people," said Lorena Prime, a productivity con-

'Sometimes people don't realize how being disorganized affects your life.'

Lorena Prime

sultant based in Watertown and one of the show's Organizers. "Sometimes people don't realize how being disorganized affects your life."

Prime — and partners Maureen Nuccitelli and Zele Avradopoulos — help three college students organize their house on the pilot episode. Though the episode is

ANGELS, page 25

PHOTO BY ZARA TOWNE
Zele Avradopoulos, Lorena Prime and Maureen Nuccitelli are "Charlie's Organizers" in a quarterly TV show airing on the Watertown Cable Access Channel.

Shotgun shell found near Hosmer School

A 14-year-old found a live shotgun shell near the Hosmer School in Watertown.

The student, who attends Dearborn Academy in Arlington, turned in the 12-gauge round to his school on May 10, according to Arlington Police.

Howard Rossman, director of Dearborn Academy, turned the shell over to Arlington Police, who will dispose of it at their firing range. — Chris Helms

Tell town your biz concerns

By Jen Thomas
STAFF WRITER

The town has completed the first phase of their economic development study, and now the consulting team wants resident feedback.

On Monday, the town will host an open discussion and reveal some of the data they've gathered since beginning

CONCERNS, page 25