

Lorena Prime receives 2015 Facilitation Award

Priority Management recently honored Lorena Prime, Founder and Owner of Clearly Organized, with the 2015 Facilitation Diamond Award in recognition of her outstanding teaching skills in Priority Management classes.

The Diamond Award is the highest level award given. To earn this, a facilitator must achieve an average of 98% or greater on classroom evaluations for all classes taught over the past year.

Priority Management provides best practice business skills training to corporations and individuals around the globe (www.PriorityManagement.com). To learn more about Lorena and her company, Clearly Organized, please visit www.ClearlyOrganizedLife.com.

